2018 Celebrity Chef Lara Lyn Carter named Polo in the Pines Ambassador

Lara Lyn Carter is an Emmy Award winning television host, chef, cookbook author, and the creator of the Wicker & Whisk product line.

Known as the “go-to authority” on Southern entertaining, Lara Lyn is wrapping up her first healthy cookbook “Skinny Southern” with Familius Publishing Company featuring gluten free and refined sugar free twists on Southern classics and more.

Lara Lyn is also currently working with 44 Blue Productions out of Los Angeles to develop content around her passion for cooking Southern Food in a healthy way.

Lara Lyn and her husband Chris have been married for 23 years and have three sons, Christopher 21, Beau 16, and Dylan 4.

“It is a blessing to watch the unwavering commitment of Polo in the Pines and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta as they pursue their mission of finding a cure for pediatric brain cancer. Tina and her Polo in the Pines team work tirelessly raising money to donate to this research. And, I have witnessed first-hand the impact that the research has had on the lives of children. This mission has taken its place in my heart and is now a passion that I will pursue with Polo in the Pines and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta. I am honored to be the Brand Ambassador of Polo in the Pines.” Lara Lyn Carter

Polo in the Pines benefiting Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga. - Polo in the Pines 6th annual fundraising event will take place at the Atlanta Polo Club October 13 & 14, 2018. This high-spirited, two-day polo event benefits pediatric cancer research at the Atlanta Aflac Cancer and Blood Disorders Center at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta. This year, Polo in the Pines is honoring Caroline Brewer, a 4-yr. old little girl diagnosed with a rare form of brain cancer last year. Caroline is 2018 Miracle Child of the Year chosen to represent Children’s Miracle Network and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta. Guests to Saturday's elegant, high-style event will enjoy exquisite food throughout the day, mouthwatering cocktails, music, an incredible silent and live auction, an exhilarating polo match, a champagne sabering and the "Stomping of the Divots." On Sunday, the Atlanta Polo Brunch Festival brings the best of Atlanta's brunch restaurants competing for your vote to win the "Best Brunch Bite" contest. Polo in the Pines Ambassador Lara Lyn Carter and a panel of judges will reveal the winners. All event proceeds will go directly to the Sharon McCollum Knight, Polo in the Pines Pediatric Cancer Research Fund held at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta Foundation.
